“ I wish to extend my deepest and warm condolences to the family of Mae. One day God promises that there will be an end to sickness and death forever, Isaiah 33:24, Isaiah 25:8. Then John 5:28,29 promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out. May you find comfort in these wonderful promises, because they will without fail come true. Isaiah 55:11 lets us know that Jehovah's word will never return to him without results, and will have certain success for that in which he has sent it." Death is unfair, and was never ever a part of Jehovah's purpose for us, so rest assured your loved one will live again in peaceful and happy conditions.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ It was a pleasure living next door to Mrs. Mae. I missed our talks on the front porch after she got sick and had to moved. She was always in my thoughts and prayers. She was sweet, wonderful and kind hearted . She will continue to be missed. She is in a better place now and I pray She will have peace and harmony with our Lord. Rest in peace. It was an honor to know her.##imported-begin##Sarah Haygood##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
