

Mae N. Staten

May 25, 1935 - December 26, 2019

MAE NAOMI STATEN, loving wife and mother of three children, passed away at Good Samaritan Hospital at age 84.

Mae Naomi Staten was born May 25, 1935 in Baltimore, Maryland to William and Maggie Harris. Mae received her education in Baltimore City public schools and graduated from Douglass High School, Class of 1953. She attended Essex Community College and received her Nursing Degree in 1972. She was employed with City Hospital, now Bayview Medical Center, as a Neonatal Nurse for 42 years.

In 1987 Mae became a member of the Elliott Temple Elks and held several positions within the organization including being the Vice Daughter Ruler.

On November 22, 1963, she married Ellis Leon Staten, Sr. From this marriage they raised two sons Tyrone and Ellis Jr., and one daughter Lynnette.

At an early age Mae attended Oak Street AME Church and also attended Sunday School.

Mae had a passion for traveling. She visited Hawaii, the Caribbean Islands, Vegas, Florida, California, and Atlantic City just to name a few. Mae was known for wearing her signature red lipstick illuminating her beautiful face and smile which also happen to be one of her favorite colors. She loved crossword puzzles, Dancing with the Stars, shopping and red door perfume. She had a special love for her daughter in law's fried chicken.

Mae had three siblings Helen Harris, Roberta Walker, and William Harris.

Mae Staten is survived by her two devoted children, Ellis Staten Jr. and Lynnette Jenkins; daughter-in-law, Rhonda Staten; three adoring grandchildren, Ashley Staten (Jason); Alyxis Staten and Rishaun Mattison; great granddaughter, Tatum Olivia Ghee. She also leaves memories to be cherished by her sister Roberta Harris, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and many dear friends and family. She will be missed by all who knew and loved her.
