

Magaline Turnage Fields

April 10, 1944 - July 28, 2009

Magaline "Maggie" Turnage Fields, a native of Enfield, North Carolina, was born April 10, 1944 to William and Minnie Turnage who preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her siblings, Dorothy White, Mack, Melvin and Dennis Turnage. Maggie was a devoted member of Second Baptist Church in Santa Ana, California for 20 years. Upon her passing, she was a dedicated member of St. Paul's Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia, where she served on the Welcome Committee as a Greeter (with her contagious smile). She was always ready to serve God first and support others as needed (which was often). Magaline was a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, friend, and confidant. She was strong, true to her beliefs, encouraging, compassionate, honest, faithful, and a truly remarkable individual to anyone who knew her. Magaline was a 1965 graduate of Elizabeth State University in North Carolina, where she received her Bachelor's Degree in Business Education. Shortly thereafter, on June 4, 1966, Maggie married Theodore M. Fields and they traveled extensively due to him being in the U.S. Marines Corps. To this union, 2 children were born, Monica and Milton. Her many life long accomplishments included: Administrative Assistant position with OIC; Owning/Operating Maggie's Secretarial Services; organized Ladies of Color Investment Group and teaching business classes at Rancho Santiago Community College all in Orange County, California. Upon her husband's retirement from U.S. Postal Service, they moved to Richmond, Virginia in 1998. Her continued accomplishments included:working for the Richmond Public School System where she retired in 2006;co-managed EDT Corporation;organized the United Investment Group within her family and continued to tutor part-time for the Richmond Public Schools.Magaline leaves to cherish her memory a loving and devoted husband,retired Msgt.USMC,Theodore M.Fields;daughter,Monica Fields;son,Milton(Samantha)Fields;three grandchildren,Kaliyah Patterson,Isaiah and Christian Fields;four sisters,Earline Fenner,Minnie(Johnnie)Winn,Viola Robinson and Bessie Bragg;two brothers,William(Mozell)and Eddie Turnage;brother-in-law,Isdore(Bertha)Fields;sisters-in-law,Mary (Walter)Rush,Gwendolyn Jones,Celestine King and Wanda Fields;devoted friends,Girt Green,Jamye(Robert)Carter,Fred Johnson and Marshall(Shirley)Nettles;godchildren;and a host of nieces,nephews;other relatives and friends.

“ To the Fields family, I had the pleasure of working with Maggie at Broad Rock Elementary. She was a warm, loving and giving person, who loved her students. Know that your strength rests in the Lord. Look to him when you feel you have lost your way and no one else seems to understand your feelings. She will be truly missed by all who knew her.##imported-begin##Sebrina Davis##imported-end##

“ When you lose someone close to you, you never get use to it. The Bible helps us to appreciate that very soon 'no residence will say I am sick' (Isaiah 33:24). What a wondreful day that will be and may this scipture bring comfort to you and your family.##imported-begin##kari jackson##imported-end##

“ It is truly unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Be assured that soon this sorrow will cease to exist. The Bible tells us that soon, " ... the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." (John 5:28,29) and that, "...he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. " (Rev 21:3,4) Now and in the days to come, may you find comfort from these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
