

Maggie B. Wilson

February 8, 1918 - May 12, 2004

Maggie B. Wilson, daughter of the late Plummie and Joseph Nance, was born on February 8, 1918 in Chester, South Carolina. She departed this life on May 12, 2004 at Sinai Hospital in Baltimore City. She received her education in Chester, South Carolina. At an early age, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she worked as a laundry worker for many years and later as a domestic worker for more than 60 years. She later joined the Keswick Care Home where she loved to go everyday. She called it her "school." There she met and made many friends as she enjoyed making crafts and potteries with them. She leaves to mourn; one daughter, Cora Lee Hoyles of Rock Hill, South Carolina; two sons, James L. Wilson and Woodrow Mayfield of Baltimore, Maryland; two daughters-in-law, Anna Wilson and Mary Mayfield of Baltimore, Maryland; one brother, Andrew Nance of Baltimore, Maryland; two sisters, Jeanette Legendre of New York and Bertha L. Ward of Rock Hill, South Carolina; one sister-in-law, Dorothy Nance of Baltimore, Maryland, grandchildren, great grandchildren; great great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews; a special friend and caregiver, Yvette Chase. She made numerous friends wherever she went and will sincerely be missed by everyone who knew her.

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The Bible holds out promises that we can put our complete faith and trust in. One such promise is found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 where we are told that the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. May you put faith and trust in this promise because that is a wonderful hope to look forward to. Again, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
