

Maggie Davis

June 28, 1919 - March 26, 2004

Mrs. Maggie Davis, wife of the late Edward P. Davis (Pretty), was born in Raften Creek, South Carolina on June 28, 1919. She was the daughter of the late Hampton and Rebecca Workman Smith. Maggie and Pretty moved to Baltimore, Maryland in the 1930's (during the Depression) where they raised their four children. Maggie went to work for the Domino Sugar Company from which she retired after 38 years. Maggie lived a long and happy life until God called her home to rest on March 26, 2004. She had been ill for just a short while. Maggie leaves to mourn her passing: one brother, Bob Doby of Camden, south Carolina; three sisters of Queens, New York, Joann, Shirley and Emma; one uncle, Jeff Doby of Baltimore, Maryland; one daughter, Marie; three sons, Albert, Adolph and Willie Edward; one step-son, Edward Davis, Jr. of Camden, South Carolina; nineteen grandchildren, twenty-six great grandchildren, and six great-great grandchildren, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, friends and neighbors.

“ To the family, I offer you my condolences. During this time of sorrow may you find comfort in the promise at Revelation 21:3,4. There it tells us, in part, that soon "...death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
