

Maggie H. Green

July 15, 1925 - May 19, 2011

MAGGIE HELEN GREEN, the daughter of the late Dewey and Florence Taylor, was born on July 15, 1925 in Accomac County, Virginia. She departed this life on May 19, 2011.

At an early age, she joined Shiloh Baptist Church in Virginia. Upon arrival to Baltimore, Maryland she joined the Ebenezer Baptist Church. She took pride in her church and was a devoted member of the Usher Board and served as treasurer for many years. Maggie remained a faithful member and servant until her illness.

She received her education at Mary Smith High School in Virginia. Maggie was employed at Maryland Glass Company for many years and Loyola College from which she retired.

Maggie was united in holy matrimony to Titus Green; the love of her life, who preceded her in death. They loved spending time with family and friends, cooking and sharing her many luscious delights. She had a sweet spirit; always giving of her time, wisdom and knowledge and always putting family first.

She was preceded in death by stepmother, Georgia Taylor; two sisters, Mary and Bernadette; and two brother, Andrew and Albert.

Maggie leaves to cherish her memory: sisters, Alva, Patricia, Deborah and Mildred; brothers, Lester, Larry Earl and Leonard; devoted nieces and nephews, Eva, Theresa and Donald; a devoted friend and caregiver, Jerry Bethea; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, sister-in-law, other relatives, friends and neighbors.
