

Maggie J. Jones

November 23, 1918 - August 6, 2002

Charlotte Margaret Purnell was born to the late Annie and Roscoe on November 23, 1918 in Snow Hill, Maryland. Maggie attended Worcester County schools in Snow Hill, Maryland. Maggie's early Christian experience was with the Salem Church where she faithfully served until her health failed and caused her to move to Baltimore. On July 14, 1941, Maggie was joined in holy matrimony to the late Louis Jones of Dames Quarters, Maryland. In 1941, the family moved to Cambridge, Maryland. Four children were born of this union, Purnell, Louis Jr., Donald and Janet. "Aunt Maggie" as she was known to many, was a very loving, caring mother and housewife. Following the death of her husband, "Aunt Maggie" was employed at Chung King in Cambridge, where she worked for twenty years. After a lengthy illness, "Aunt Maggie" slipped away to be with the Lord on August 6, 2002 at 6:30 p.m. She leaves to cherish her memory: four children, Purnell, Louis Jr., Donald and Janet; three daughters-in-law, Martha, Joyce and Delores; one son-in-law, David Jones; eight grandchildren, a host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, many friends and acquaintances. On brother, George Purnell preceded her in death.

Tribute Wall

“ Maggie J. Jones

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM