

Maggie D. Johnson

June 25, 1917 - June 28, 2011

Maggie was united Holy Matrimony to The Reverend Wardell F. Johnson. They relocated to Greensboro, North Carolina where she served as the First Lady of Pilgrim Baptist Church. Maggie enjoyed a blessed union the Reverend Johnson for Forty-Nine (59) years. During this union, they were blessed to raise one daughter, Evelena. Maggie lovingly supported her husband and the congregation until his passing. After the death of husband, Maggie transitioned to Baltimore, Maryland to be closer to her family members. Here, she joined the fellowship of Israel Baptist Church, under the tutelage of Rev. Dr. H. Walden Wilson, II

Maggie had an eye for design and was always seen wearing the latest fashions and the "snazziest" hats. She was an excellent seamstress and took pride in sewing clothes for business associates, family members and friends. In addition to sewing, Maggie was an excellent singer. She spent many years singing on the church choirs and sharing the gospel with others through song.

After living on her own for several years and in an assisted living environment, Maggie's health began to deteriorate. She found it increasingly difficult to manage her daily routines, so she moved to the Holly Hills Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Towson, Maryland.

On Tuesday, June 28, 2011, God, in His infinite wisdom, gently took Maggie

Dell Johnson, into His loving arms, where she is now making heaven her eternal home and joining her loved ones who have preceded her in death – her parents, her husband , her four sisters, Willie Mae Cherry, Sarah Dixon, Eloise Pearson and Annie Wilkerson, and two brothers, J. W. Reese and Johnny Reese. She will be truly missed by all who knew her and loved her.

“Peace, I leave with you...Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.”

--John 14:27

One of our favorite memories is visiting with you and Uncle Wardell when Apryl was considering Wake Forest University for college. You made us a breakfast feast fit for kings and queens. We laughed and talked before heading back to Maryland.

Aunt Maggie Dell,

We love and miss you.

“ One of my favorite memories was listening to Aunt Mag's "booming" voice when she sang at Pilgrim Baptist Church in Greensboro, NC just before Uncle Wardell would get up to preach. Then we would go out to eat, go home, talk, eat, talk some more, then eat again. We visited almost every summer when Walter and Anna were younger children.

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 2yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again! Any Jehovah's Witnesses that you meet would love to show you in the Bible the truth about death! Again so sorry for your loss!!
