

Maggie Lee Heard

April 26, 1936 - January 8, 2006

MAGGIE LEE HEARD, daughter of the late Alphonso and Eula Ware was born on April 26, 1935 in Lafayette, Alabama. On that day God being full of kindness decided to fill Maggie with kindness so that she could touch the hearts of many. Maggie attended chamber County Training School in Alabama. In 1953, Maggie married Clinton heard and from this beautiful union nine children was born. They later moved to Baltimore, Maryland were they began to raise their five girls and four boys in family setting built on faith, hope, much love and family and togetherness. Maggie received the right hand of fellowship at the New Antioch Baptist Church. It was quite evident that she had accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and her Savior, by demonstration, the life she lived. Maggie was a very creative young woman. In her earlier years, she had a passion for sewing and designing. She enjoyed making clothes for her kids and took great pleasure placing smiles on her little faces when she would make tops and shirts for their little dolls. She made sure her home was a place of comfort and much love for her husband and kids. One of her favorite past times were watching old movies. She could name all of the old stars in a movie and took delight in debating with her husband on their names. When the movie was over and the names revealed, she proudly said, "I told you so!" if she ever viewed a movie she liked, boy, she really would watch it over and over again. The family must have seen the Temptations over a 100 times. Maggie showed great hospitality to everyone she came in contact with, especially, those who crossed the threshold of 2432 Brentwood Ave. You always received a warm smile and a hearty, “how have you been” and “let me get you something to eat”. She had a genuine love for all people. Her spirit was always warm and welcoming. It was totally impossible to come in contact with her and not be touched by her gentle caring and nurturing spirit, a gift and talent from God in which, He so fully bestowed upon her. However, through her enormous strength and love, the most important aspect of her life that she truly enjoyed and meant so much to her loving and spending time with her husband, children and especially those grandchildren, all seventeen of them. Family meant everything to her. Every weekend without fail, the family gathered in her presence to eat, talk and to love one another unconditionally with much laughter. It was an unspoken rule on Fridays, everyone met at Mama’s. After many hours there, while getting our coats she would say, “You all don’t have to rush”, FAMILY! Every Christmas dinner, Easter and Thanksgiving gathering was spent always in her presence. Such love and bonding, words could never explain, FAMILY! On January 8, 2006 after many months of fighting a tough battle and running a strong race, God in his infinite wisdom and mercy welcomed his child “Home to Glory”, she knew his voice and throughout her illness more importantly she knew His name and who to call upon. The name that is above all names, she knew to call on “Jesus”. The angels are now rejoicing, Praise the Lord! She is survived by her loving husband, Clinton Heard; five daughters, Gail Heard, Linda Reynolds, Synthia Green, Lucretia Heard-Murrill and Jolanda Bell; four sons, Tommy Heard, Michael Heard, Anthony Heard and Clint Heard; one sister, Suzanne Williams; two brother-in-law, Carter Heard and Junior Heard; one stepson, James Price; one daughter-in-law, Carla Price; three sons-in-law, Steven Reynolds, Mitcherson Bell, Sonny Green; seventeen grandchildren, Tommy Jr., Reggie, Larry, Lakesha, Latasha, Darrell, Tiffany, Jessica, Alicia, Stephanie, Brittany, Synthia, Jovon, Jasmine, Nathaniel, Steven Jr., Darius; six great grandchildren; one niece that she truly cherished, Anna Crawford and a host of nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Maggie Lee Heard, I just read about the death of your dear loved one. I would like to express my deepest sympathy to your family. We know that when we lose someone in death it is very hard to bear. I would like to share a scripture with your family that has brought me some comfort, when I lost someone in death. Daniel 12:2 tell us in part there will be many of those asleep in the ground who will wake up. Please remember that the Bible is full of words of comfort.##imported-begin##Maryjane Stokes##imported-end##

“ To my family: This is to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear mother. At this time, I know it's very difficult. But the help that I received at this time is in God's Word the Bible. It comforts me. 2 Corinthians 1:4 says that God comforts us in all our tribulations and it also says that he is a God of comfort. God offers us the hope of the resurrection at John 5:28,29 but it still doesn't take away the pain that you are feeling right now. But in time, the pain does get easier to bear. Revelation 21:3,4 says that God will wipe away every tear from your eyes. At verse 5, he gives us a guarantee because he says these words are true. Please know that I love you and I will also miss her. Your cousin, Anna Crawford.##imported-begin##anna crawford##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to you on the loss of your loved one. The bible encourages us at Isa 26:19, "Your dead ones will live ..they will rise up. Also we are comforted at 1Cor 15:26 that Almighty God will remove our enemy death. Yes, God care very much about us.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ I read about the recent death of your loved one, and I wanted to offer my sympathy to the family. The loss of a loved one is the hardest thing in life we have to bear, but what comforts me is the sure hope of the ressurection. God loves us so much that John 3;16 says that he gave his only begotten son so that who ever exercises faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." So soon this enemy death will be done away with forever. 1st Cor. 15,26 says, As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." May the bible"s promises bring you comfort and hope of seeing your loved one again in the near future.##imported-begin##R Johnaonr##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
