

Maggie McMillion

August 15, 1923 - December 8, 2003

In this time of need, surely God's comfort will come with speed. Having lost someone whom was so dear; our prayers God please hear and bring us the love we've lost. You know we all have to bear the cross...for somewhere in our lifetime we have thought of this very moment. The moment we imagined the world would come to an end. A moment where at one time or another we said, "Oh please, dear God, let it be me." As we moved on through this sweet journey of life, we've learned to live, to love and to die. Still, the most difficult situation of all is to except the lost of a loved one. So it is now, we mourn the lost of our departed Maggie, who after a long illness was removed, from our mist on December 8, 2003 at Future Care Canton Harbor Nursing Home. “ To the family, Please accept my sympathy. May the promise expressed at Isaiah 66:13 provide you comfort - "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. I know your loss must be very painful. During this difficult time, the Bible can be very helpful. Almighty God has a hope for your dear loved one and your family. John 5:28,29 promises, "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Continue to draw strength from each other and the scriptures.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
