

Maggie M. Melton

March 28, 1929 - September 23, 2016

MAGGIE MOBLEY MELTON, daughter of the late James Mobley and Maggie Beatty Mobley, was born on March 28, 1929 in Chester, SC. She was the youngest girl of twelve children.

Maggie was joined in Holy Matrimony to the late Boyd Melton of Chesterfield, SC and of this union they were blessed with one child, Timothy Melton, who preceded her in death.

Maggie accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal savior and was baptized at an early age at Black Rock Baptist Church of Chester, SC. She later attended Isreal Baptist Church of Baltimore City, and in 1962 she joined the fellowship under the pastorate of Dr. Edmond D. Meade. Maggie was an active member on the senior ministry. She loved her church member until her health no longer allowed her to attend.

Maggie was educated in the Public School System of Chester, SC, she later completed the Nursing program at Baltimore City Community College and became a Licensed Practical Nurse.

Maggie worked as a Nurse at Mercy Hospital for over 20 years until her retirement. Maggie enjoyed traveling, cooking and spending time with family and friends. She also loved going to her annual family reunion. She would make friends wherever she went. Maggie was a true friend and devoted family member.

On Friday, September 23, 2016, the Lord touched Maggie Mebley Melton and gently took her into His loving arms to enter into the realm of eternal peace. Not only is she now in the presence of the Lord, but also with her loved ones who have journeyed on before her.

Maggie leaves to cherish her memory: her granddaughter, Crytal Melton-Johnson (Terrell); a great-granddaughter, Logan Johnson; a very special niece, Patricia Fields (Stan), and a host of cousins, nices, nephews and friends.
