

Maggie Ringo

February 19, 1931 - August 27, 2006

MAGGIE JACKSON RINGO, daughter of the late Will and Lencie Jackson of Wadesboro, North Carolina, was born February 19, 1931. After a lengthy illness, she departed this life on Sunday, August 27, 2006 at the Homewood Future Care facility in Baltimore, Maryland. She received her formal education in the North Carolina School System. After graduating from the Anson County Training School, she moved to Newark, New Jersey. Maggie met and married Willie Martinez Ringo, and from this union, three children were born: Cheryle Benita, Willie Martinez, Jr., and Linda Cathy Ringo. Maggie loved her children and wanted a "positive lifestyle" for herself and them. Desiring to relocate, she and her family moved to Baltimore, Maryland. She made many, many sacrifices, and she worked tirelessly at many jobs! She was also employed at the Bendix Corporation, the General Electric Corporation and the Elizabeth Clooney Agency. She attended Huber Memorial Church while her health was good! Some of the simple pleasures of life which she enjoyed most were "sitting on the porch, basking in the sun, and drinking coffee." "O, how she loved to drink coffee!" She was an exceptional cook, and she loved to cook "southern dishes." Baking cakes and sweet potato pies were two of her family's favorites! She enjoyed fellowship with her family and friends! She loved "family gatherings", especially on holidays! Her friendly smile was genuine and generous! She was "Never a Complainer" whether "in good or bad health!" Her great-granddaughter, "MarciannaRingo", predeceased her in Year 2002. She leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Cheryle Benita and Linda Cathy Ringo; and one son, Willie Martinez Ringo, Jr.; one grandson, Marc Ringo; three great-grandchildren, Bria, Marc, Jr. and Malek Ringo; five brothers, Melvin, George and James Jackson (Baltimore, Md.), Otis Jackson (Randallstown, Md.) and Symuel Jackson (Newark, New Jersey); one sister, Fannie Wiley (Bronx, New York); four sisters-in-law, Billie and Yvonne Jackson (Randallstown, Md.), Frances and Michelle Jackson (Baltimore, Md.); a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends!

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible assures us that there is going to be a resurrection. (Acts 24:15) When that time comes there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:4) May you receive much comfort and strength from family, friends and these comforting promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ May I send condolences to you all. Ms. Maggie was 75 years young when death broke the circle of life . Imagine the happiness that will be enjoyed when the dead loved one are resurrected in the near future, John 5:28. There are so many marvelous things we will be able to do and see with our dear love one when our creator original purpose for the earth is accomplish for mankind to live forever on earth. I am looking for that time and I know you all too. May all the happy times shared with Ms.Maggie support you all in life jounery.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
