

Maggie Smith

February 11, 1926 - November 28, 2016

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his faithful servant. PSALM 116:15

On November 28, 2016, our beloved, Maggie Smith went home to claim God's promise of an eternal place of rest, having been a faithful servant to the very end. She was born on February 11, 1926 in Richmond, Virginia to the late Prince Albert and Sally Smith.

At an early age, Maggie accepted Christ as her Savior at Union Level Baptist Church, now known as World Overcomer Family Church. She faithfully served for many years as a trustee and treasurer.

After being educated through the Richmond Public Schools, she worked for Liggett Myers

Tobacco Company and Richmond Cedar Works. At a later time, Maggie became employed by Phillip Morris, from where she retired.

Maggie enjoyed bus trips, making crafts, doing book puzzles and hanging out with her friends at RCAP. Before her illness, you could go to her home for fully cooked meals any day of the week. Her smile would warm up a room and her heart was open to all. With such authority, when she spoke, you would listen.

Maggie was preceded in death by her brothers: Charles Sr., Purcell, Willie, Albert and Ellsworth Smith; and two sisters, Catherine Walker and Evem Roane. She leaves to cherish her memories a loving and devoted daughter, Sheila Smith (Roy); a devoted niece, Vallarie Roane; a devoted nephew, James E. Walker; a loving great niece, Charnelle E. Smith; and a host of other nieces, nephews and cousins. Sharing in her memory are also special friends: Elsie Jones, Ethel Houston, Mevema Rogers, Gregg Davis and Lee Moore.
