

Major Masenburg

May 28, 1954 - July 17, 2009

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Major Masenburg

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To Jackie, Toriel, Major, and Kit God's Blessings to you and yours during this difficult time in your lives. I just wanted you all to know that Earth has no sorrow that Heaven can not cure or heal. And to God be the Glory for great things He hath done!. We might not understand why He does what He does but know this, It is His will for all of you to have your Dad's, and Husband's and your Brother's life to come to an end at such a time as this. God doesn't do anything by mistake, or nothing by design. You'll understand it better by and by. That is my belief as well as my prayer for you all. God Bless you, Wendy King-Crowder friend and co-worker##imported-begin##Wendy King-Crowder##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Major worked with me at the zoo. In fact he was truly the face of the zoo. He always took a true interest in our lives, and was a constant cheering section for us all. His kind gentle nature was something we all admired and loved. His absence from the zoo is a powerful loss. Everytime I hear a call for the swing gate, I expect to hear his voice. We all miss him terribly.##imported-begin##Kim Dixon##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Jackie, Torriel, and Major, your loved one will always be remembered, tho he is gone on. He will live on in your life by always keeping all the memories you have of him close to your heart, and feel free to reminisce, but don't dwell on anything that makes you sad, think of all the joyous times, and occasions and let his love for you all as a father, keep you strong, and know that he will live on thru you. Let his life, and love for you speak for itself. A father's love is a treasure to have had. I know this being a daddy's girl. My father passed 4 years ago, but everyday I remember him. And I smile because of all the good times, and lessons, and love he gave and taught me, along with my mother. So be comforted knowing you had that blessing to know your DAD.##imported-begin##Janice F. Davis##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ No words can ease the despair in your hearts for the loss of such a gentle person. Major was such a mainstay here at the zoo and the swing gate post is just not the same without him...he will certainly be missed by many who were accustomed to his kind greetings and smile whenever one came upon him. May his family and friends find peace in knowing that he is resting in the arms of the angels.##imported-begin##Michelle Kistner##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I'm sorry for not being able to come to the funeral - I am currently living in Louisiana. I worked with Major at the zoo, in the Education Department. My day ended at 2pm so I would pass Major on my way to my car every day. We would chat and despite knowing that I worked three jobs he would always tell me to not work too hard. He was always polite, laughing, and above all kind. So kind. He will be missed and mourned.##imported-begin##Rebecca Davis##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM