

Majorie Velma Gaulden-Smith-Bullock

April 9, 1921 - April 25, 2010

MARJORIE VELMA GAULDEN was born on April 9, 1921 in Baltimore City, Maryland to the late William Smith and Elizabeth Dunaval Smith, both of Virginia. She departed this life on April 25, 2010 after a lengthy illness. She attended the old Booker T. Washington Junior High School and graduated from Douglass Senior High School in June, 1941 with honors. Marjorie had many jobs in her life, but the one she enjoyed most was being a loving mother. On August 20, 1941 she married the late David Thomas Bullock, Sr. and began to have her family. From this union came eight children. In 1969, Marjorie met her current husband David Lee Gaulden. They were joined in matrimony on November 29, 1970. There were no children conceived from this marriage. She made numerous friends wherever she went with her radiant smile and dynamic personality and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend, devoted wife and mother. She leaves to mourn: her loving and devoted husband, David Lee Gaulden; five sons, David T. Bullock, Jr., William W. Bullock, Sr., John E. Bullock, Orlando M. Bullock, Sr., and Durwin A. Bullock; two daughters, Chonita L. Hampton and Zandra D. Bullock; sister, Gladys Thomas; son-in-law, Leonard L. Hampton; four daughters-in-law, Charlotte Bullock, Savannah Bullock, Rhonda Bullock and Sukye Bullock; aunt, Catherine Bullett; grandchildren, great-grandchildren, a great-great grandson; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Majorie Velma Gauden-Smith-Bullock. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity the live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
