“ Dear friends and family, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of Mr. Gamble. No matter how much time goes by the loss can leave you feeling so empty inside. I have found that the finest basis for encouragement comes from the bible. Never underestimate the value of prayer. If talking to a friend can help, how much more can pouring out your heart to the God of all comfort. Notice what the Bible says at Psalms 55:22...Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous one to totter. I hope that you can find some comfort from this scripture.##imported-begin##Ava##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Mr. Gamble: I am very sorry for your great loss. I send my condolences to the family. However, there is much comfort to be found in the scriptures. Acts 15:24 says "...that there is going to be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous." Also, Isaiah 33:24 speaks about a time when "...no resident will say, "I am sick." So we must wait on Jehovah God to fulfill these promises and to cure our "...pain [and] outcry...". (Revelations 21:4).##imported-begin##Kendra##imported-end##
