

Malik Antonio Fuller

February 26, 1998 - February 12, 2015

MALIK ANTONIO FULLER, son of Dana Thomas- Kess and Matthew Fuller, was born on February 26, 1998 in Baltimore, Maryland. The youngest of four until September, 1999, he and his siblings were a part of the unity marriage of his mother Dana and father Derrick Kess.

Malik was a student in Baltimore City Public Schools. He was intelligent and talented. He was gifted in the arts of sketching and drawing, athletics and electronic repairs. Malik was known for his smile, making others laugh, sometimes quietness and his hair.

Malik leaves to cherish his memory: his parents, Dana and Derrick Kess and Matthew Fuller; four sisters, seven brothers, grandparents and great-grandparents, nine aunts and uncles, fourteen great-aunts and great-uncles and a hosts of other relatives, mentors and friends.

“ I am extremely sorry for your loss. I can not imagine the pain you have had to endure. May the God of comfort be with you now and in times to come. God's Word the bible promises the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. That promise is at John 28,29 and also at Revelations 21: 3,4

“ As Malik's teacher, I saw a really wonderful side of him: he was bright, funny, and big-hearted. I always teased him about how perfect his handwriting was--it was great to make him laugh. I miss him every day and feel waves of sadness as I walk past his locker, where I would see him constantly, and I still expect him to poke his head in to say hello throughout the day. I pray that his friends and family may find peace in this tragic loss.

“ To Maliks family i'd like to extend my heart felt sympathy in your loss. I was saddened to hear the news but i know that earth has no sorrow,that Heaven can't heal. I Pray you for that you will gain the strength to hold your head up treasure the precious memories. I encourage you to do as the scripture said in Psalms " i look to the hills from whence cometh my help; my help cometh from the Lord".
