“ I send my sincere and warm condolences to the family of Malinda. May you be strengthend and comforted by our loviing heavenly father, Jehovah. He sent us his beloved son, Jesus, so that through the ransom sacrifice that he made, when he gave his precious life, we will all have an oppportunity for everlasting life. At John 10:10 Jesus said, I have come so that they might have life, and have it in abundance. Jehovah is the God of all salvation, and only he knows the ways out from death. Psalm 68:20. Because of his great love for us, he has entrusted his son, Jesus, with all authority to ressurect the dead. At John 5:25-29 Jesus said, "Just as the father has life in himself, so he has also given the Son life in himself, and he has given him authority to do judging, because son of man he is. "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life." May you be comforted by the hope of the ressurection.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. We can always receive comfort from the scriptures. The resurrection hope is mentioned at Acts 26:19- "Your dead ones will live...they will rise up." Also, 1 Cor 15:26 tell us that God is going to remove our enemy death. May these verses comfort and strengthen you during this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
