

Malissa Mae. Ben

November 11, 1943 - July 29, 2024

MALISSA MAE BEN was born on November 11, 1943 in Manning, South Carolina to the late Eugene Bowman and Melissa Lemon Bowman. She departed this life peacefully at the age of 80 on July 29, 2024 surrounded by her loved ones.

Malissa grew up in Baltimore City, attending Garrison Junior High before deciding to pause her education to help support her family, but she did decide to receive her GED later in life.

In August 1965 she married Ernest Ben Jr. of Baltimore, and during this union, gave birth to two sons, Laurence and Wesley.

Malissa worked a countless number of jobs during her life, the most notable was working for the L. Gordon & Sons Company as a machine operator creating boxes for Whitman's Chocolates. After some years of service working there, she became a housekeeper working for Red Coats. This led her to her final job from which she retired in 2011, the University of Maryland, Baltimore working for the late Dr. David J. Ramsey.

While retired, she spent most of her days completing crossword puzzles, reading the Bible, watching game shows or cowboy movies, visiting her hairstylist every other Friday, attending church on Sundays, and chatting with family and friends throughout her life. She was known for her kindness, generosity, and sense of humor, and she touched the lives of everyone who knew her.

Malissa is survived by her children Mary Bowman, Laurence (Joi), and Wesley. She is also survived by her sister, Helen; brothers, James of Brandon, Florida, Robert (Jessica), John, and Alphonso of Manning, South Carolina; many nephews, nieces, cousins, and countless friends whom she loved.
