

Mamie Bagby

June 15, 1917 - July 8, 2002

Mamie Lee Hancock Bagby, born June 15, 1917 in Charlotte, Virginia to the late Marshall and Molly Hancock, died July 8, 2002 at the Baltimore Bayview Hospital. Mamie obtained her education within the public schools of Charlotte, Virginia. In the early 1940's she moved to Baltimore where she reunited and married her childhood friend, the late John Bagby. Throughout her years until retirement, she earned her living within the field of domestication. In 1936, Mamie was blessed with her one and only child, the late Dorothy June Brown, to whom she was a devoted mother and friend. Mamie's livelihood resided in the church. During her youth she served the Beautiful Zion Baptist Church of Virginia. Upon adulthood, she became a member of the St. Paul Baptist Church of Baltimore where she served her Lord as usher and choir member. Mamie leaves eighty-five years of cherished memories to: six grandchildren, Samuel, Patricia, Michael, Deborah, Larry and Anthony; ten great-grandchildren, four great-great grandchildren; three sisters, Annie, Martha and Lillie of Baltimore; three aunts, Eva, Canda, Annie Russ of Virginia and Ester Jennings of New York; two sisters-in-law, Elvira Penix and Florence Reed; two brothers-in-law, Theodore Penix and Floyd Thomas; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Mamie Bagby

---

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM