

Mamie Odell Carter

January 17, 1931 - January 24, 2019

Mamie Odell Carter was born January 17, 1931 to the late Garfield and Maude Davis in Caroline County, Virginia. She was called home to rest on Thursday, January 24, 2019 to have eternal peace. She is preceded in death by her husband Herman L. Carter Sr. and two sons, Franklin D. Carter and Larry M. Carter.

She received her education in the public schools of Caroline County. She was a member of Brown Grove Baptist Church and attended regularly until her health began to decline. Her spiritual gift was serving on the Senior Citizens Committee for a while.

She met and married her wonderful husband Herman L. Carter Sr. at a young age and they remained together for 63 years. She cared for her husband during his illness for many years. Mamie was employed by St. Joseph's Villa and was referred to by the orphan girls as "Mother". She was a nurturing mother figure to them.

She loved decorating her home for the holidays. Mamie thoroughly enjoyed planting and caring for her flowers and received many compliments on her yard and Christmas decorations, yearly.

God also blessed her with a talent for cooking. She was a great cook and enjoyed cooking for her children and grandchildren. Her specialty was her holiday dinners and soups.

The gifts of love she left behind will always be treasured. She leaves to cherish sweet memories to Herman L. Carter, Jr. (Antoinette), Joyce Ball (James), Calvin Carter, Sharon Boone (Lewis), Ronald Carter (Delynda), Sandy Carter (Rocky); a host of grandchildren and great grandchildren; two sisters, Louise Williams and Gale Derdevanis; a brother, Donald Davis; devoted friend, Irene Hall; caring niece, Dawnita Taylor-Biggers; loving caregiver, Helen Jackson; and a host of other relatives and caring friends.
