

Mamie Feaster

January 4, 1937 - November 17, 2013

MAMIE RUTH (ROYSTER) FEASTER departed this life Sunday, November 17, 2013 after a very brief illness. She was the youngest of twelve children, born on January 4, 1937 to the late Robert and Hallie Royster in Halifax County, Virginia.

In 1945 Mamie's parents moved to Baltimore, Maryland and joined the Mt. Sinai Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Jarrett R. Butler. Mamie accepted Christ at an early age whereby she was baptized and became a member of the Mt. Sinai Baptist Church.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. With the desire to further her education, Mamie attended Morgan State University and earned her Bachelor of Arts degree.

Mamie worked for Western Electric in Baltimore, Maryland for many years until she was relocated to Richmond, Virginia. She retired from the newly acquired company Lucent, after dedicated services totaling forty- five years. She met, fell in love and married John E. Feaster, Jr. who has been her rock, confidant, friend, and a loving and dedicated husband for over forty years.

Mamie, Babe as some affectionately called her, had a sweet gentle spirit and always cared about other people's feelings. When you were in her company she made you feel special with her beautiful smile and generosity. She loved to travel and spend time with her family.

She leaves to cherish her memory: husband, John E. Feaster, Jr.; two sisters,

Alberta Harris and Hallie Moore, both of Baltimore, Maryland (nine siblings preceded her in death, Reva, Charles, Joe Louis, Jane, Robert, Jr., John Henry, Mary, Susie, and Frances); three sisters-in-law, Mary Logan, Inez Feaster and Hattie Cash; one brother-in-law, Geoffrey Logan; a special niece, Elaine Stanton, all of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of other beloved nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.

Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates. — Proverbs 31:31

“ Our family would like to express our condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing." Our prayers are with your family.

“ To the family of Mamie Feaster:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32).
