

Mamie M. Ferguson

July 25, 1941 - December 28, 2014

MAMIE MARGENE FERGUSON, born July 25, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Lawrence B. and Rosa C. Ferguson. She surrendered her earthly home for her eternal home early Sunday morning, December 28, 2014.

Margene, as she was affectionately called matriculated in the Baltimore City Public schools. After completing her course of studies she began her working career with the Bendix Corporation in Towson, MD. She shared her many talents with various employers throughout Baltimore and vicinity. She concluded her career upon retiring from Catalyst Laboratories.

At an early age Margene gave her life to Christ. She attended different churches throughout the community as she was seeking to find a permanent church.

She left the nest and started her family. Four of her five children, Terry, Lisa, Debbie, and Jeffrey became her guardian Angels very early in their lives. They watched over her and their brother "Wishes" until God called them to join hands together once again.

Margene had a quiet spirit and often enjoyed swimming and spending time alone. She was small in stature and full of fire, never shy about speaking her mind. She enjoyed helping others and she always did it with a smile. She enjoyed more than anything, spending time with her son and enjoying playing the lottery, horse racing and the casinos. She knew how to double her dollars.

Cherishing her memory: four brothers, Douglas Richardson, Ronald Ferguson, Marvin Ferguson (Barbara) and Andre Ferguson (Pam); two sisters, Lucy Jones and Vonderlear Foote (Maurice Sr.); a special, loving and devoted life-long friend, Evelyn Whye; a host of nieces and great-nieces, nephews and great-nephews, cousins and many caring neighbors and friends.
