“ I am sorry to learn about the death of Mamie. I am sure that this must have been a difficult time for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says, It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But it was not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend sincere condolences to you at this time. May the God of all comfort be with you, and help you come to terms with your loss. One day the bible promises that there will be no more dying. Sickness and death will be gone forever, and 1st Cor:15,26 says, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." I know how painful it is to lose a loved one, and my heart goes out to you, but know this that one day Manie will live again by means of the promised ressurection. All who are in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out. May you find strength and comfort in the promises from Jehovah God and his son Jesus, and may your precious memories help you to cope.##imported-begin##rita johnson##imported-end##

“ To Cousin Ellen and Our Family Thinking of you and offering you hope and comfort. May you find peace and love in the memories you cherish. The sorrow of the faithful is not that of permanent loss, but the tender sense of sadness that comes in saying good-bye for now to someone we love. May today's sorrow give way to the peace and comfort of God's love. With love, The children of the late Ollie (punny) and Eula Mae Giles Delaware, New York and South Carolina##imported-begin##Edna Giles-Waller##imported-end##
