

Mamie Lee Parker

July 1, 1945 - March 1, 2013

MAMIE L. PARKER, daughter of Palmetta Parker and the late Merrill Parker, was born on July 1, 1945 in Harford, Connecticut. She departed this life on March 1, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education at Frederick Douglass High School in Baltimore, Maryland. Later, she landed into a career at the University of Maryland where she worked for twenty-five plus years. She left due to her having to battle an untimely illness.

Mamie was loved wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend and a devoted family woman.

She leaves to mourn: her mother, Palmetta Parker; son, Earl Parker; daughter, Marie Martin; sister, Melodie Hinton; three brothers, Donald Parker, Henry Rasberry and Eligat Rasberry; three sisters-in-law, Ruth Parker, Diane Parker and Kristine Parker; brother-in-law, John Highter; granddaughter, Sade V. Allen; two grandsons, Justin Martin and Darryl Holmes; nieces, nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Change of Address

Please be advised that I have moved. I received a call the other day from GOD, the chief architect, and He informed me that my new home was complete. You all knew that I had been working on my building, sending up my timber, packing up, and getting ready to go. I knew my mansion needed some finishing touches and that the chief carpenter, Jesus Christ had to inspect it and give me the final approval. On Friday, March 1, 2013 at 4:45 a.m., He let me know that my mansion was complete and I could move in. So He told me to go ahead and change my address. Well my new home is finished and what a sight it is to behold. It is located on an exclusive estate area behind beautiful pearly gates. It is over the other side of a serene celestial shore. Of course, you know the streets are paved with gold and everyday is Sunday; just like you've been told. Trees with twelve manners of fruit, grace my garden and I can walk and talk with my Savior without a worry or a care. There's peace, happiness and joy here, and of course, there is no more pain or heartache, no strife or discontent, only sweet serenity... you don't have to worry about me. I can sit at the Master's bountiful table and listen to a Heavenly choir. And best of all, my Heavenly Father is here in all His glory. I have my own designer who has fitted me with my own white robe and my own wings. I could go on and on about my new home but instead I am going to pray that you will get to move here yourself one day. Oh, before I go let me give you my new address:

Mamie L. Parker

“ To the family of Mamie Lee Parker:

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in the scriptures at Revelation 21:4 " he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.”

Ms. Howard - March 05, 2013 at 08:25 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

Our condolences to the Parker family. Ms. Mamie was one of the nicest people I knew. She always had a smile on her face and was dedicated her job. My husband William has worked with Ms. Mamie for several years and shares his sadness of her passing...May God be with the family during this time and our prayers are with the family. Sincerely, William and Monet Banks Pal, Melody, Donnie, Maria, Shade', Isacc, and the rest of the Parker family, I loved Mamie, as you did and she will be well missed. Stay strong and trust in God. Continue to live a life that will make her proud. We all loved her ; but she was only lent to us by God.

Then I heard a voice from heaven say, "Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on."

"Yes," says the Spirit, "they will rest from their labor, for their deeds will follow them.""
