

Mamie Street

April 2, 1921 - June 25, 2007

MAMIE E. STREET, the daughter of the late Gussie Pumpy and Harlee Stewart, was born April 2, 1921 in Greenwood, SC. She departed this life on June 25, 2007 around 9:00 p.m. when she decided to "Let Go and Let God Take Over". She went to elementary and high school in Baltimore City and worked for a time for the Pennsylvania Rail Road. She went on to work for J. G. Reynolds Packing Company and then Hawaiian Punch until its closing. Mamie loved to fish and would leave home at 3:00 a.m. to catch the bus across the bay bridge. Mamie met and married Benjamin Street in the 1940's. She loved people and liked to be in the midst of a crowd; where children were, that was where she wanted to be. Mamie joined Bibleway after the passing of her mother. She leaves to mourn her passing: a devoted sister, Lillie Ervin; godson, Gregory "Poochie" Page; loving children, Barbara (Melvin), Marcia (Jackie), Rodney, Reggie (Nannie) and Michael; a church full of nieces and nephews for she was "Aunt Mamie" to them all; a lifetime friend. Mrs. Rose Joe who worked with her for over forty years; Elizabeth Redd who worked at Southern Hotel Operations; her nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends. Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Some stay awhile and leave footprints on our hearts and we are never the same. Your loving sister, Lillie Ervin Miss Street, As children, we cherished the attention you lavished on us during all those summers we spent with you and Daddy in the big city. We had become country kids, so we lined up like baby chicks to follow you on field trips to Dutch Country, the zoo, picnics and the parks. On Sunday, we sat beside you, soaking up the sights and songs of multiple worship services. We remember how readily you shared a smile, a few kind words with people we met on every journey. To you, a stranger was simply a potential friend. We laughed at your stories about fishing adventures, especially the part about all the fish you spared because you already had so many. And we loved those lazy days on the front porch where only the aroma of your freshly baked bread and the promise of more Hawaiian Punch could draw us inside. Decades have slipped away, but we've held on to the wonderful memories. We were blessed to have you in our lives, and we will especially miss your wisdom and your wit. Until we meet again, our hearts will cradle our love for you. Your loving children, Barbara (Melvin), Marcia (Jackie), Rodney, Reggie (Nannie) and Michael

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear family, I'm so sorry you lost your loved one in death. May our heavenly father give you the comfort you need to help you to cope with your grief. One day, our heavenly father, Jehovah God promises an end to this enemy death, and grant all obedient mankind an opportunity for everlasting life in a new paradise earth. Everlasting life is something we all long for. Noone wants to lose their loved ones in death, because it is so hurtful and so unfair. One day all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out to a ressurection of life. May those promises from God's word bring you comfort, and help you to cope with losing Mamie. Remember death is only temporary, and one day Mamie will rise again in the promised ressurection. John 5:28,29, Rev21:3-5, Daniel 12,2, and Isaiah 25,8.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
