

Manelvert V. Smith

December 16, 1957 - May 11, 2003

“Let not your heart be troubled, Ye believe in God, believe also in me.” John 14:1

Manelvert Vasquez Smith, son of the late Charles F. and Mary E. Smith, was born on December 16, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on May 11, 2003. Vas left to fill an empty space in God’s garden with his mother, father and son Angelo Smith. He received his education at Carver Vocational Tech. High School. At the age of eighteen, Vas went straight from high school and became employed for over a decade at the Baltimore City Circuit Court House. He studied under the Jehovah Witness Religion, but later in life he accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior. He was presently employed at Hands on Car Wash where he was well known to everyone by “Lou”. Vas was a loving and devoted father. He always talked to and pushed his children to succeed. He gave from his heart. Vas had a love for Basketball and passion for Music. He had a heart of gold and a smile that would stop time. Vas always talked about his love for family and friends. He loved children, and they all loved him. He had a second mom whom he adored, his baby Aunt Ollie. He leaves to cherish his memory: a son, Manelvert Smith Jr., a loving daughter, Vashon Smith, the love of his life, Wanda Ransome; one sister, Charnell Smith Ransom; one brother, Zachary Smith; three aunts, Ollie Taylor, Vivian Johnson, Billie Boswell, three uncles, Eugene, Shakir Weaver and Alfred Talley; two nephews, Zachary Smith II; and Charles Ransom; one niece, Chantell Winchester; two granddaughters, Shambre Smith and Zoe Smith; seventeen cousins, one brother-in-law, Gary Ransom; his heart Dimples; best friends, Landis, Rod, Arnold (his boss) and the mother of his beloved son, Rhonda Wallace.
