

Manuel Lawrence Imel

September 1, 1971 - November 25, 2015

Manuel Lawrence Imel was born on September 1, 1971 in Baltimore, Maryland to proud parents Lawrence Robert Imel and Vernice Jean Gaylord Imel who both preceded him in glory. Manny, as he was affectionately known, was the 8th of Lawrence and Vernice's twelve children. He was preceded in glory by his brother Charles and his sister Rena.

Manny, a graduate of Allegheny County Public Schools, spent his early years in Cumberland, Maryland. Like his father, Manny felt equally comfortable roaming the sprawling mountains of Cumberland and the busy streets of Baltimore. At an early age, Manny found he had a gift for home improvement and the culinary arts. Manny could frame out a basement just as easily as he could prepare a four course French dinner.

The greatest glory in living lies not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall. This was how Manny lived his life. He was not a perfect man, but continually sought the Lord's grace and mercy – and it was in the midst of that grace and mercy that he always found a way to get back up. Especially in this last year of his life, Manny sought forgiveness, renewal, and restoration of his health, his relationships, and his family. Manny loved his family and his friends always became "family". Whatever he had – he gave. Whenever you needed him, he was there. We never had to ask. He was our protector. He was our brother. He was our father. He was our cousin. He was our friend. He was our heart.

Manny is survived by his daughters Kristiana, Venia, Tatum; son Jordi and step-son Erik; brothers Harold, Eric, Brock (Chrystal White), Moshe (Robbin Imel), Lawrence; sisters Kimberly (Michael Jones), Laurencina (Charles Johnson), Katrina, Hyon; grandfather Billy Davis; uncles Jerry and Charles Gaylord; aunts Bessie and Rosetta Gaylord. Manny leaves a host of family and friends to on carry his memory, but he was especially close to his cousins Daniel, James, Shershallan and his childhood friend Timmy – who was more like a brother.
