“ I am so sorry to read of the recent passing of your loved one. Death is so devastating to a family, and I know this has to be especially hard on his sons. I too lost my only son when he was only 29 so I can really identify with your sorrow. What keeps me going is the promise of God's peaceful new world. In that new world there will be no more pain, sorrow, or death anymore, because this is Jehovah God's promise to those who love him and his son Jesus. A lot of people aren't familiar with this teaching, but it's right in the bible. God never intended for us to die in the first place, because he desired all of us to live forever. John 3:16. One day even the memory of this painful life we all go through will be forgotten, because Isaiah 65:17 says of God: "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." 1st cor 15:26 also promises: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." If you would like to know more concerning how these blessings will be fulfilled, please speak to any of Jehovah's witnesses locally, and they will gladly assist you in learning how you can soon be reunited with Manuel again. May you be comforted by the sure hope of the resurrection. Acts 24:15##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Death is never easy to deal with especially when it overtakes someone so young. May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and the promise that those who have fallen asleep in death will live again (John5:28-29) on a paradise earth. Warmest regards.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. This is a sorrow that God promises will one day be no more (Rev 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise may you find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort you in all your tribulations."
