

Manuel Nedd

December 29, 1921 - July 5, 2006

MANUEL NEDD, affectionately known as "Bounce" or "Po Man," was born on December 29, 1921 in Lynchburg, South Carolina to the late Bessie Van Buren and Reverend Lincoln Nedd. He departed this life on July 5, 2006 after a lengthy illness. He was educated in Lower Lambertson Elementary School, Upper Lambertson School and Germantown High School in McClellentown, Pennsylvania. After graduating in 1940 Manuel went to work in the coal mine. Later, he went into the U. S. military and was discharged from the Navy in 1953 and the Air Force in 1956. He moved to New York City and worked for the Federal Government at Fort Hamilton as a Clerk Typist/Ration Breakdown Technician. Manuel retired as a Federal Service employee of the United States 1204 Dental Detachment in the Bronx, New York on January 10, 1981 after serving thirty-one years, five months and twelve days. "Bounce"/"Po Man" holds numerous certificates and awards. May the work he's done speak for him. As a young man, Manuel joined Lambertson Baptist Church. He enjoyed the gospel and loved church fellowship throughout his life. "Jesus loves you and so do I" was repeated every Sunday when he greeted you on the telephone as he listened to gospel music while preparing for service at New Tabernacle Baptist Church in the Bronx, New York; where he was a faithful member. Manuel was a devoted, kind, lovable and generous family man and a friend to everyone. He will sincerely be missed by all whoever came in contact with him. He was a shining star here on earth dressed in three piece suits, wearing gold medallions, diamond rings and driving

Cadillacs. "Po Man" had a fashion statement that no other could duplicate, his style or dress. They say the streets of heaven are paved with gold; gleaming with all kinds of precious metals. So don't feel bad or cry because we won't see "Po Man" dressed in earthly goods anymore. Imagine how his presence in heaven has added to the beauty that only God has created. He is preceded in death by first wife, Virginia; sister, Mozelle; brothers, Mosely and James; and daughter, Margurite. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Gracie; daughters, Betty, Phyllis, Fayette, Joyce and Roxanne; sons, Manuel and James; sisters, Rosealea and Bessye; brothers, Fred and Charles; sisters-in-law, Berniece, Lena, Beverly, Donna, Laura; brothers-in-law, James and Ollie Jr.; seven grandchildren, Tracye, Dana, Brittany, Da'Shana, Sasha, Justin and Christian; three great-grandchildren, Mya, Destiny and Margurite; nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences. May you be comforted as you reflect on the promise of the resurrection. Isa 26:19 says, "...your dead ones will live... they will rise up." Jesus also demonstrated the power of the resurrection with Lazarus at John 11:38-44. Knowing this about Almighty God gives us comfort and it shows how much he truly cares about us.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, "Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart," says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I AM SO VERY SORRY FOR YOUR LOSS. MAY THE SCRIPTURES AT JOHN 5:28&29, BRING YOU COMFORT. JEHOVAH GOD TELLS US THAT THE DEAD WILL BE RESURRECTED TO LIVE AGAIN. THIS IS IN LINE WITH PSALMS 37:29 WHICH SAYS THAT THE DEAD BOUGHT BACK TO LIFE, WILL LIVE ON EARTH IN A RESTORED PARADISE.##imported-begin##BARBARA GRAY##imported-end##
