“ To the family,
I am deeply sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. Death can be hard to cope with but fortunately we can draw comfort from the scriptures. One particular scripture is found at Isaiah 25:8 which says in part, "He (God) will swallow up death forever". One day soon, God will not only get rid of death, but He will also resurrect our dead loved ones. May this promise bring you comfort and peace during this time of need (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).

“ I don't know where to begin, there are soooo many memories that I could share! You are my friend, my protector, my counselor and my reality check! I couldn't have asked for a better everything! I will miss you dearly and think about you always! I always thought we'd have more time to "get it right" what I wouldn't give for one of your obnoxious text messages! I will love you forever, miss you always and forget you never! You are free from troubles and worries, sleep well dear friend for you are now protecting and watching over us from a higher plane! Until my time comes and we meet again!

“Marc: The brother of all brothers and friend of all friends, I met Marc through my cousin Reno and from that day he always treated me like family. when we would hang out he would always act as if he was my protector, asking me are' you ok something wrong"? He always supported me and talked to me when i need to talk or to calm down. Marc is missed and loved and admired. I will never forget him and the knowledge and brother hood he left me.
