

Marcel Bernard Moseley

December 24, 1949 - September 8, 2009

Marcel Bernard Moseley, son of Jessie Lee Moseley and the late Edward Francis Moseley, Sr., was born on December 24, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland. God called him home on Tuesday, September 8, 2009 after a lengthy illness. Marcel, Stinkey and Marquie, as he was affectionately known by his family and friends was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Upon completion of his education, Marcel received an honorable discharge from the United States Army for his dedicated service to his country from 1972 to 1976. After his service in the United States Army, Marcel worked for Home Interior for sixteen years and retired in 1998. He continued to work and was never unemployed until he became ill. After accepting Christ as his Lord and Savior, he was baptized at the Mount Carmel Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland. Marcel was a friend and uncle to everyone he met and touched many hearts. Those who met him were moved by his loving and caring spirit. He never missed a day saying to his mother "Love you". Marcel loved music. He played the saxophone for special programs with the Baltimore School Music Program. In his early life he was a member of the East Baltimore Cadets, where he received numerous awards for his participation. Marcel leaves to embrace his memory; his mother, Jessie Lee Moseley, brother, Edward Francis Moseley Jr. (brother Miran Augustus Moseley preceded him in death); sister Jacqueline Williams, nieces, Chiffon Renee Moseley, Tamara Muriel Bruce, Crystal Lee Brown and Christina Lee Williams, brother-in-law, Leroy Eugene Williams, devoted aunt, Osabelle Hawkins and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Christ Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection (John 5:28,29). What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to Mr. Moseley's family and friends. The loss of a dearly loved one can be painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to First Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie- Titus 1:2. I hope you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
