

Marcella Davis

November 4, 1961 - December 2, 2020

Marcella Davis was born on November 4, 1961 in Baltimore, Maryland to Vivian Davis and the late Solomon Davis. She departed this world on Wednesday, December 2, 2020.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from Southern High School in 1980. Marcella was a hard worker. She began working at the age of 16 at The World Famous Lexington Market Konstant's where she worked for 20 years. She also worked for the Baltimore City Public School System and at Santoni's Super Market in Various positions. She worked for H&S Bakery and final place of employment was in food service at Loyola university, for the catering company Parkhurst Dining.

Marcella had reputation for taking care of others. She had the kindest heart. Whenever she had something, she had to share it. Family members would often stop by her room to talk and ask advice. Some of her favorite past times were going to Horseshoe Casino, playing cards on the weekends with friends and family, and talking to her daughter on Duo. If there was a celebration you could count on her being on the dance floor, "Walking the dog". She loved to watch all sorts of TV shows and movies. Especially all of the singing and dancing competition shows Keeping things clean was also very important to her . She would get up every morning to straighten up and would let you know if you left something out of place.

Marcella will be deeply missed by all. She leaves behind a mother: Vivian Davis and step father: Bernard Williams; one daughter Erica Lee; five sisters: Linda Davis, Eleanor Davis, Shirley Davis, Christine Lofton, and Tiffany Booth; four aunts: Dorothy Mae Edwards, Shirley Gene Edwards, Delores Ushry, and Christine Parker; two uncles: Bud Edwards and Charles Mitchum; two special nieces and three special nephews Tamika Martin, Stephanie Megginson, Al(Man) Moore, Anton Stevenson, and Sean Jackson; two great men Joseph Corbin and Jerome Robinson. Preceding her in death: one son: Lamont Curry; two sisters: Angela Davis and Alberta Davis; one aunt: Louise Edwards; one uncle Lee Edwards. She also leaves behind many, many more cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.
