

Marcella England

April 7, 1949 - April 26, 2013

MARCELLA ENGLAND was born on April 7, 1949, to the late Horace and Camie Wright.

She was one of ten siblings (four preceded her in death).

Marcella (also known as Marcie) received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. She was an employee of Poly Seal for many years.

At an early age she accepted the Lord as her personal Savior and was baptized at Macedonia Baptist Church. She would often fellowship with the Israel Baptist Church of Baltimore City, under the leadership of Rev. H. Walden Wilson II. She was a true believer of the Gospel and expressed her love for the Lord through her praise and worship.

Marcella was united in holy matrimony to James England (Lee). During this blessed union, they shared eighteen years of love together showing their admiration and adoration for each other.

She was a woman of great compassion and class. She opened her home and demonstrated hospitality to all who came her way. Marcella enjoyed entertaining, singing, listening to music and cheerfully giving gifts. She was a true Diva. She had a passion for glamour and fashion. She always had her hair in place, her shades on and her makeup was flawless. She was beautiful spiritually and physically.

Marcella loved all of her family. She cared for nieces and nephews as her own. She adored and will forever hold in her heart Emanuel (whom she referred to as her Mr. Wiggley).

On Friday, April 26, 2013, after fighting the battle of a lengthy illness, God, in His Infinite Wisdom quietly called Marcella England to her heavenly resting place. She will be missed by her family and the many people who lives she touched.

Marcella leaves to cherish precious memories: her husband, James England; stepdaughter, Sharon England; two brothers, Marcel Wright (her twin) and Tyrone Wright; three sisters, Rita Good, Paulette Russell and Sheila Thompson; and a host of nephews, nieces and other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Mrs. England:

I was saddened to hear of the passing of Mrs. England. May the memories of her help to ease your pain of sorrow.

Please remember that she is not suffering but is asleep in death waiting on the promise that Jesus made at John 5:28 & 29, which states, " Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice & come out.

I will keep your family in my thoughts & prayers.

Love,

“ My condolences to the family of Ms Marcella England. Just think if Adam and Eve would not have sinned they along with their offspring would have lived forever. Did their disobedience stop God from ever fulfilling his original purpose? John 3:16 answers that question. The Greatest display of Love ever shown paved the way for not only everlasting life but also the resurrection hope. May you find comfort from God's words at John 5:28,29.

“ To the family and friends of Marcella England I send my deepest condolences to you. In the Bible book of Ecclesiastes 9:4 it states: "For the living are conscious that they will die; but as for the dead, they are conscious of nothing at all" which brings out the point that the deceased do not feel pain, sadness, troubles or anything at all as if living--death can be liken to a sleep state of mind. However all deceased persons have the opportunity to live again through the means of Jesus Christ death which gave all mankind a hope. In the Bible book Of Revelation 21:4 it gives the promise of: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." The scripture demonstrates that in a soon time period death will never again occur, no pain of death. I hope that these scriptures have brought you comfort and hope to see your loved one again.
