

Marcellois Murray

March 4, 1942 - September 26, 2014

Marcellois Murray, son of the late Alfred Murray and Laurvinia Murray, was born on March 4, 1942 in Anne Arundel County, Maryland.

He departed his life on September 26, 2014 after a short illness. He received his education at Wiley Bates High School in Annapolis, Maryland. At the age of twenty-one, he became employed as a construction worker for many years. Marcellois was baptized in Jesus name and filled with the Holy Ghost in 1970 in the Pentecostal Church where he and his wife served many years together. Marcellois was known for witnessing and lifting up the name of Jesus.

Marcellois was known for his special "ice tea" at every function and was known for the big time parades throughout the city and the Eastern Shore area. He was the manager/leader of the marching band known as the "Twilighters" for numerous years. Also, he was known to some as "Mutt" and to some as "Tony". Drag racing was another fun adventure that Marcellois enjoyed very much along with watching football.

He leaves to cherish his memory: five children, Maureen, Deborah, Wayne, Angie, and Towanda Murray; special loved ones who have been a big part of his life, Tachaia and Ashley Haughton and the Gardiner family.

He also leaves: his one brother Eugene Murray; three sisters, Catherine Conway, Myrtle Goodwin, Lilliemae Brown; three sisters-in-law, Alma Murray and Dr. Marie Brice, Evangelist Julia Turner; two brothers-in-law, Elder Eugene Brown and Purnell Miles; son-in-law, Bishop Otto Hines Sr.; and daughter-in-law, Trina Murray; eighteen grandchildren, thirteen greatgrandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
