

Marchell Antrea Green

January 8, 1961 - November 24, 2012

Marchell Antrea Green was born in Richmond, Virginia on January 8, 1961. She departed this life on Saturday, November 24, 2012. She received her early education in Richmond Public Schools and graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School. She also attended John Tyler Community College seeking a degree in Mortuary Science. During her youth, Marchell was a member of the usher board at Third St. Bethel A.M.E. Church, girl scouts, and pep squad. She was employed and retired from the St. Joseph Little Sister of the Poor in 2005. Marchell was an advocate for Breast Cancer Awareness and was an active member of an epilepsy support group.

Marchell was very dependable and always dedicated her time to helping others. She was an organ donor; selflessly giving to those in need. She enjoyed cooking and clipping coupons. Marchell loved spending time and socializing with family and friends. She was a caring and devoted mother and grandmother. She was always full of laughter and outspoken with a kind spirit. Marchell knew how to appreciate and enjoy life. She was known for her beautiful eyes and sense of humor. When acknowledging someone's levity, she proclaimed "now that's the joke of the day".

Marchell was preceded in death by her father, James R. Green. She leaves to cherish her precious memory her daughter, Carly M. Brumfield; one granddaughter, Laila Milan Branch; mother, Katherine E. Green; three brothers, James (Deborah Lee) Green, Carl (Barbara Parker) Green, Darryl (Rhonda) Green; grandmother, Mary T. Green; three nieces, Chantelle Green, Cherish Maupin and Jasmine Abrams, three nephews Jamel Green, Darryl Green, Jr. and Myles Green; two great nieces and two great nephews; five aunts and two uncles; two devoted friends, Michael Brumfield and Annette Smith and a host of other family and friends.

“ I was deeply saddened to hear of Marchell's passing. I first remember meeting Marchell years ago when she was dating my cousin. She had a beautiful personality and spirit -- always with a smile on her face. I'm sure she retained those qualities until our Father called her home. To her family and close friends: A sudden loss can be hard on the heart, mind, and soul. But with God's strength, you will get through this difficult time. Hold dear to your memories of Marchell, as I will do the same. In this way, she will be a part of your lives forever. God bless!

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the lost of your dear loved one. One of the greatest sources of comfort at a time like this is a consideration of Jehovah's promises for the dead. This statement made by our loving heavenly father will be very consoling to you: "I—I myself am the One that is comforting you people." He also said: "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people." (Isaiah 51:12; 66:13.)

“ I met Ms. Green on Halloween at my son's wedding. I am so happy that we had some time to get to know each other. We talked about the next time we would come together like this happy time we were sharing. For me, she will always be in my thoughts and her beautiful daughter and friend will always be in my prayers. She will truly be another angel to watch over us all. Her memory will be alive there for us. Sincerely, Vicky Conover
