

Marcia C. Smith (Chance)

December 16, 1977 - November 18, 2003

Marcia Chanel Smith, affectionately known as “Chance,” gently closed her eyes after a lengthy illness on Tuesday, November 18, 2003. She was born in Baltimore, Maryland, on December 16, 1977 to George (Marcel) and Brenda Smith. At an early age she attended and was baptized at Holy Temple FW Baptist Church under the leadership of her grandfather, Rev. James E. Smith. Chance was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She graduated from Northern High School in 1995. Throughout her high school years she was a member of Northern’s softball teams; receiving notoriety from several local newspapers. She was known for her wicked fastball pitching. In her senior year, she was acknowledged with a certificate for having the prettiest eyes in the school. Marcia was employed with various companies. She was last employed with Schmidt Bakery until the onset of her illness. Marcia made numerous friends wherever she went, and will sincerely be missed by everyone who knew her. She was a true friend and a very loving, caring and devoted mother. Chance had a zest for life that was infectious. She touched and affected so many of us with her generous and loving nature. “ Chance, I really miss your smiling face and your silly little jokes. You were my big sister and I remember when we first met. I hate that your not here to laugh and joke with me. You are forever going to be missed. I never though that I would loose such a close friend. But I know that your in a better and safer place now. For I know that your only sleeping. Chance I am glad that your pain and suffering is over but I am more upset because my big sister can't be here beside me. I was happy to know that you were always happy no matter what obstacles life had taken. I LOVE YOU and I MISS U BIG SISTER.##imported-begin##shanta##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
