

Marcia E. Mensah

January 7, 1954 - August 25, 2022

Marcia Darlene Robinson Ekpaha-Mensah who was born on January 7, 1954, in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Prentis and Nellie Robinson, passed away on Thursday August 25, 2022, at 1:05 p.m.

In 1972, Marcia graduated from Eastern High School. She worked as an assistant to high level executives for Fortune 500 companies. At the time of her passing she was an executive administrative coordinator for the Success Coaching Program and Academic Advising team at Johns Hopkins University. She enjoyed this position which allowed her to assist first generation and limited income students to achieve success in reaching their academic goals. Marcia enjoyed reading, gardening, and spending time in nature, especially at the ocean. She was assertive and outspoken, known to be a voice for the voiceless and a fierce protector of those she loved and believed in. She had a spirited, quick witted, and comical personality that brought joy and laughter to those closest to her.

Marcia is survived by her loving daughter and best friend LaNel Thomas, her brother Anthony Robinson, her companion and long-term friend Lester McGilbery and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.
