

Marcus A. Moore

March 3, 1983 - September 16, 2007

Marcus Anthony Moore blessed Mark and Michelle Moore at 10:15p.m on March 3rd 1983 The prodigy of established masonry family, Marcus completed an arduous apprenticeship in the field of cement masonry for District of Columbia in 2006 his Construction sites including several metro stations and most recently, the Woodrow Wilson Bridge Project. Aside from his occupational success, Marcus has passion for anything with an engine! When he was not riding his motorcycle, he was polishing hi truck to the sound of his own Music or adding an artistic spin his time drawings and poetry. He also found his peace in the games of chess that he played with friends and family Marcus talent for his craft could not however outshine his sparkling character and and one-of-a kind personality. Marcus found his inner Strength through his faith in the Lord. He was baptized and accepted Christ as his lord and Savior before leaving us this year Marcus infectious smile and assertive confidence easily brightened any room. His ability To bring humor to every situation made his personality one we never forget. Marcus was also headstrong and passionate about life. With an opinion about everything, Marcus put his whole heart into his family and friends, especially his baby sister Morgan Moore, and his girlfriend of six years Channing Quinichett. On Sunday, September 16, 2007 the world lost this dynamic man and the heavens gained an angel. At 7.p.m. Marcus was suddenly taken from us while doing something he loved, riding his motorcycle. He leaves to celebrate his life his mother and guiding light, Michelle Moore, his father constant supporter, Mark Moore, his sister and apple of his eye, Morgan Moore, his grandparents Doris Gunter and Dorothy Moore, and his grandparents, Martha Savage and Acoyer Savage Marcus was also predeceased by his grandfathers Joseph Gunter and Theodore Moore. His girlfriend Channing Quinichett and a host of aunts, uncles cousins and friends will never forget his smile, the laughter and ,the fun and the love that Marcus spread during his short stay here on earth.

“ Dear family and friends of Marcus, I'm so very sorry that you lost your loved one. This was a terrible tragedy, and I know very hard to come to grips with. Sadly, tragedies, sickness, and death hits all of us sooner or later. I can identify with your pain, because i also lost my son at a young age 10 years ago. What comforts me, and has helped me to cope over the years is the sure hope of the ressurection. At John 11,25 Jesus said, "I am the ressurection and the life, everyone who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." John 5:26-29 says that God has given his Son all authority to bring the dead back to life. It says that all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus"s voice and come out." May the hope of seeing Marcus again in the ressurection be a source of comfort to you, and may the precious memories you shared with him help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
