“ I am so sorry that you lost your dear loved one. Death is a hard thing to deal with, and especially so when a loved one dies so very young. May Jehovah God give you the strength and the comfort that you need to see you through. His son Jesus gave his life so that we might be done with sickness and death, and obtain to everlasting life. John 3:16 reminds us of this: God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed; but have everlasting life." One day the graves will be emptied of their dead, because all those in those memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out." May you be sustained and comforted by the hope of the resurrection, and may Jehovah's love continue to be with you in the days ahead. John 5:28,29##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn about the death of Marcus. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunally##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible has given me much comfort during times of loss. First Corinthians 15:26 assures me that our "enemy death" will be destroyed. Also, Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort, hope and strength each time you read these verses from your Bible. Continue to draw close to God.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, My condolences goes out to you. May you find comfort in God's promises at Revelation 21:3,4. Please take the time to read these promises and find a measure of comfort during this time of bereavement.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. Although it may seem like there is no comfort during this period, there really is a source of comfort for you. It is found through God's Word, the Bible. Please take a minute and read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15. There it highlights the wonderful resurrection hope Jehovah holds out to us all. He is the comforter and promises at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 to "comfort us in all our tribulation." Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful hope.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
