

Marcus D. Hopkins

January 6, 1990 - September 9, 2011

MARCUS DARRELL HOPKINS was born in Baltimore, Maryland on January 6, 1990 to Tyra Heath-Wilson and Marico Hopkins, Sr.

“Marky” as he was known by those who knew and loved him, was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System where he received his high school diploma.

Marky, had a special bond with his brothers that no one could break, and wherever he went you can bet that his brothers weren't too far behind. He had a devoted relationship to his mother who he would call to make sure “Ma” was alright. He especially loved all of his cousins and looked forward to his family gatherings and holiday to spend time with each of them.

Marky had a smile as bright as the sun. He always knew how to bring joy to his family and friends by making them laugh; telling jokes, dancing and singing in his worst voice. He loved to groom himself; getting manicures at least twice a week and enjoyed hanging out with his friends and playing basketball from time to time.

Marky had his own way of developing a special connection with anyone he encountered. He had a weak spot for babies and if he could, he'd do anything for anyone who needed the help.

Marky's life would seem too short to many, but those who were touched by him understood that the quality of existence far exceeds the quantity of time in which one lives.

Marky leaves to cherish his memory: mother and stepfather, Tyra and Murray Wilson; father, Marico Hopkins, Sr.; maternal grandparents, Retha Heath and Tyrone Heath; paternal grandparents, Johnny Hopkins and Susie Mae; brothers, Javell, Isaiah Jr, and Marico Jr.; sister Dominic Hopkins; Stepbrothers, Isaiah and Brandon; stepsisters, Kia and Candice; great-grandparents, Jerome and Ruth Heath; his godparents, Valerie and John Bishop, Sr. (who he affectionately called "DaDa"); four special aunts, Michelle, Tisha, Tina, and chervil one special uncle, Tyrone; six paternal uncles best friend, Blake Betters; godsons, Blake Jr. and Bride; a devoted girlfriend, Diara Davis; his extended Winston Family and a host of other relatives and friends whom he loved sincerely.

“ God I pray that you cover this family in the precious blood of Jesus! May your angels be encamped around each and every one of us. I pray for deliverance and strength for everyone in this family. I bind up every demonic force that try to come against us, that would hinder our destiny to be unfulfilled. I ask you to lead our foot steps along the way. I ask you to break all strongholds off each one of us in the family and help us during our time of loss. May God send His Holy Spirit to comfort us while we mourn as He promised to in Matthews 5:4. Let this loss bring unity and increasing love to our family. Blessings to our family. LOVE, Aunt Nita

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
