

Marcus James Perdue

February 9, 1924 - August 18, 2002

On August 18, 2002 the spirit of our Lord ended the long suffering of our beloved Marcus James Perdue, Jr. calling him home. Marcus was born to the late Marcus James Perdue, Sr. and Laney Perdue on February 9, 1924 in Macon County, Georgia. Marcus was educated in the Macon County School System. Marcus moved from Macon County, Georgia to Baltimore, Maryland, where he met and married his endearing wife, Ella Mae Marks. Within this loving union six children were born. His eldest son, Willie Lee Perdue, preceded Marcus in death. Marcus retired from Harbison-Walker Refractories Company as a foreman in 1985. He was also a maintenance man for the Cherry Hill Community. He leaves to mourn his passing: one sister, Estelle Lockhart of Augusta, Ga.; two daughters, Clarine Johnson and Annette Dean; three sons, Clarence Gregory and Sylvester Perdue; twelve grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren; four brothers-in-law, Johnny Marks of N. Y., Major Marks, Jr., Willie Marks and Thomas Farrar of McKinney, Va.; four sisters-in-law, Hattie Marks of N.Y., Gladys Marks and Olivia Farrar of McKinney, Va.; three daughters-in-law, Margaret Perdue, Deborah Perdue of W. Va. and Christine Perdue of Philadelphia, Pa; one son-in-law, John Dean; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
