

Mard Lee Robinson

June 23, 1953 - November 9, 2021

MARD LEE ROBINSON was born to the late Rosetta (Washington) Moore and Isiah Moore, Sr. on June 23, 1953 in Salisbury, North Carolina. She departed this life on November 9, 2021. Now her new address is in Heaven with her Heavenly Father, and all those born again Christians who have gone home before her.

Mard received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from Eastern High School in 1972. At age 23, she began her lengthy career as a RC MAC Clerk at C&P Telephone Company, now Verizon, until her early retirement in 2003. Although she was enjoying her retirement, she made the decision to return to Verizon as a contractor for a few years. In her pastime, Mard enjoyed line dancing with her good girlfriend, Gertie and keeping up with her family's goings on. She was a loving and dedicated wife, a nurturing mother and grandmother, and a benevolent sister and aunt, who was always willing to lend a helping hand.

Preceding her in death were her siblings, Eveline Curtis (Leen), Virginia Barnes (Pat), and Isiah Moore, Jr. (Bro).

Mard leaves to cherish her memory: her dedicated and loving husband, Clinton Robinson Sr.; two sons, Shawn Byrd and Clinton Robinson Jr.; two step-daughters, Chellie Robinson and Chantia Robinson; four brothers, Willie Moore (Florence), David Moore (Sheila), Moses Moore and John Wesley Moore; two sisters, Rosetta Sanders (Raymond) and Kris Parker (Troy); fourteen grandchildren, and fifteen great-grandchildren. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and a special companion, Timika Nixon.
