“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Ms. Caldwell. First Corinthians 15:26 lovingly reveals that our enemy death will be destroyed. There is much hope for our loved ones returning to life. Acts 24:15 lovingly tells us "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Mrs. Margaret Caldwell, I would like to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. We all look forward to a time when death, mourning, and pain will be no more (Rev 21:4) The Bible also promises that one day soon, all those in the memorial tombs will come out (John 5:28-28). Continue to draw close to the "God for all comfort" and he will give you the strength to ensure. (2Cor1:3-4) Sincerely, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C Murphy##imported-end##

“ May you please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of Margaret. I didn't know her, but I would like to share a comforting scripture with you. Rev 21:4 tells us, 'And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. What a wonderful promise from a loving father who cares about us all. 1st Peter 5:7 By means of a resurrection, many will come to life again. Acts 24:15 May Jehovah's promises be a comfort to you while your're going through this sorrow, and may your loving thoughts of Margaret help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
