

Margaret B. Starks

January 1, 1927 - October 14, 2004

Margaret Burroughs Starks beloved daughter of the late William and Virgie Burroughs was born on January 1, 1927 in Baltimore, Maryland. Margaret silently slipped away on October 14, 2004 at the Future Care Health Facility-Old Court after a brief illness. Margaret received her education in the Baltimore City Public School system. She was an energetic woman with an entrepreneurial spirit. As a self-employed Seamstress and Interior Decorator, she contracted with numerous retailers throughout the Baltimore area. She was noted for her work with several major companies such as Sears, JC Penny and Hechts before her retirement. Although she was out of the public arena, she continued to labor diligently at her home in Owings Mills, Maryland caring for her son Stanley who recently predeceased her. Devoted to her family and friends, Margaret will always be remembered for her kindness, her funny narratives, and her open-door policy for all who needed a hand. She enjoyed the company of family, friends and neighbors, and a good time was always had when they were around. She gave of herself unselfishly. Margaret leaves to cherish his memory: one son, Leonard Foote and his wife Jacqueline; two grandchildren, Leonard and Tora Foote; one great-granddaughter, Akeera; two sisters, Lillian Briscoe of Severn, Maryland and Gladys Burroughs of Baltimore, Maryland; one brother-in-law, Neal Briscoe of Severn, Maryland; seven nieces; six nephews, a host of beloved great nieces and nephews, and many special friends.

“ Margaret was a beautiful and wonderful woman. My next door neighbor for several years. An incredible seamstress , cook, down to earth, loving accepting, conversationalist. She would do anything for you. I loved and miss her and think of her often. This lady could make some beautiful custom draperies and slip covers. I would install them for her and she would stroke my ego. We had great admiration for each other! Boy could this lady make some great fried chicken in an iron skillet. Look forward to the day I see her again in heaven. I did not get the chance to say goodbye to her here on earth.
