

Margaret Brooks

July 25, 1942 - January 5, 2018

Margaret M. Brooks, daughter of the late Emma W. Mitchell and Phil Early, was born July 25, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on January 5, 2018 due to heart failure.

She received her education at Carver Vocational Technical High School in Baltimore. She attended Cortez Peters Business School. Upon completion she began working as a personal assistant. After that she began at the Social Security Administration.

She married Michael Brooks and had two children. My uncle Michael and my beautiful mother Shelly.

Margaret made many friends at her jobs with Social Security and the Key Bridge and wherever else she went. Many of those friends she kept in contact with. She was always a sweet, kind, and caring person up until the day she passed, which is rare in this day and age. Something a lot of people didn't know is that she had a great sense of humor. She would say dirty remarks which people didn't expect to come from such a sweet little old lady. This made them even funnier.

She enjoyed many things such as cooking, baking cakes, playing on the computer, watching her shows on TV, and sitting in the car doing crosswords and staring at people while she waited to pick me up from school. She was always a caring and generous human being. She was a great wife, mother, friend and the best grandmother a grandson could ask for.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, Michael Brooks; one grandson, Donavon

Barnett; one granddaughter, Alexcia Barnett; sister Corlean Jeter; nieces, nephews, and a host of other friends and relatives.

Robert & Julia Walton - January 19, 2018 at 04:05 PM

“ Our deepest condolences to the family. May you find comfort in the love you share with each other and from God's word the Bible at Isaiah 25:8 where God promises to "swallow up death forever". We all can look forward to a time when mourning and pain will no longer cause distress. (Rev. 21:3,4)

Armstrong Family - January 09, 2018 at 10:10 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
