

Margaret Cissy Carter

May 18, 1955 - December 18, 2022

Life's Legacy

“Love’s greatest gift – Remembrance”

Margaret Carter was born May 18, 1955, in Richmond, Virginia to the late James Hayes and Betty L. Hughes. She is preceded in death by her sister Lisa Justine Carter and brother Ronnie Lee Hayes.

“Cissy” as she was affectionately called by family and friends received her formal education at George Wythe High School in Richmond, Virginia. While attending she was on the track team and graduated in June 1974. She furthered her education at J. Sargeant Reynold Community College in Richmond, Virginia with her studies in Business Administration.

She was a member of Trinity Baptist Church, however, she often would attend Moore Street Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Alonza L. Lawrence.

She was formerly employed by the Department of Social Services as a Benefits Specialist. She later retired after 28 years of dedicated service.

Margaret was a wonderful mother and companion that was a great support to her family. She especially liked to cook with her specialty being rum cakes, which everyone loved. In her spare time when she wasn't watching television or going to concerts, you could find her eating crabs or cooking a pot of chitterlings, which she loved to eat.

She was a spiritual lady that always made sure that she was in church on Sundays. No matter how private she was, she continued to enjoy her life and would often donate to St. Jude's, Jill's blanket and other nonprofit organizations.

Our beloved Margaret was called home to be with her loved ones that have gone on before her on Sunday, December 18, 2022, after a brief illness. Margaret is survived by her loving family: son, Ronald Carter; daughter, Tre'na Carter (future son-in-law, Terrance "Tee" Lee); three beloved grandchildren, Kori Carter, Tanaye Carter, and Noah Carter; three sisters, Bonnie Carter (Oliver) and Irish Robinson (Jerry); adored longtime companion, Jesse Whitehead; aunt, Madeline Shaw; nephews, Mernard Carter (Felecia), David Carter (Barbara), Anthony "Ted" Daughtery and Lanser Lee Carter; a dear special friend, Toni Seabron (Lucky); and a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends.

Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay.
Your golden heart stopped beating,
Your hard working hands to rest.
God proves to us, He only takes the best.
