

Margaret A. Davis

July 20, 1941 - July 24, 2023

Margaret A. Davis, was born July 20, 1941 in North Carolina to Garfield Arrington, Sr. and Emma Holt. She was educated in the North Carolina School System. She had a variety of careers and later in life worked for Philip Morris, from which she retired after 13 years of dedicated service. She attended church at Establish Covenant Ministries under the leadership of Pastors Kenneth and Cynthia Barbour. She was a steadfast and faithful member. Whatever the church needed that she could do, she would: clean the church, the grounds, you name it, she would do it.

Margaret was a “prayer warrior,” and a great intercessor. She would wake up at 5:30 in the morning just to intercede for people. She was a loving and kind woman of God; a great wife, mother and friend. She loved all she came in contact with. She used meekness when interacting with people she counseled about their problems. Whoever went to her home was “fed”, physically and spiritually. She even took people into her home and nursed them back to health. There was nothing she wouldn’t do to help those in need.

Margaret leaves cherished memories to: devoted husband, Willie Davis; Max, her loyal dog companion; son, Larry Arrington (Frances); Clarethia Turner (Karl); grandchildren, Jerry Jr., Cheri, Tonya, Narquinta, Larry Jr., and Shae; 10 great grandchildren; 2 devoted friends, Ms. Mary Buffaloe and Gwen Jones; a host of other relatives and friends.
