

Margaret L. Gray

March 23, 1918 - July 11, 2014

Margaret Louise Gray, daughter of the late Elsie Elsworth, and Louise Bell was born on March 23, 1918 in Reisterstown, Maryland. After a long, "GIFT of LIFE," Margaret departed on July 11, 2014. She had so many names, such as, "Ma, Gram, Nana, and Grandma," moreover, her children called her "Momma".

Margaret began her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Later she met and married the love of her life, the late Lawrence Alexander Gray. Out of the union came eight children. The family resided for many years in Baltimore at 1605 N. Hilton Street.

Margaret dedicated her life to Christ at an early age. As her Christian journey continued, she moved her membership to Shiloh A.M.E. Church in 1991, where she was called the "Candy Lady." She was also a committed member of her church, believing that the work of the gospel was best promoted at the grass roots, seeing individuals won to Jesus Christ and grow in their Christian faith. "Margaret was passionate about the children's choir at her church and particularly when they sang. She was also passionate about traveling, going on cruises, and visiting her children, who brought her great joy".

Margaret was known for loving and taking care of her children including the children throughout her neighborhood. She enjoyed cooking, taking long road trips, and hosting family gatherings. Also, she was best known for her famous apple and sweet potato pies. While you're out, you could always get something good to eat at her house.

Margaret leaves to cherish her memory: four sons, Ronald, Michael, Louis, and Dorian; three daughters, Patricia, April, and Cheryl; daughter-in-law, Helen, son-in-law, Bill, fifteen grandchildren, twenty-five great-grandchildren and a host of great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

Margaret was preceded in death by her first born son Warren and grandson Mark.

“ Dear Pat, I want to express my condolences to you and your family in the loss of Mrs. Gray, who I considered to be one of my mentors and a great influence to me in the church. She always had a positive word to cheer me up.

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.
