

Margaret Harper

July 1, 1942 - November 26, 2018

Margaret Cecelia Harper, the daughter of the late Rosa Lee Parham and the late Lonnie Proctor, her sun rose on July 1, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. Her sun set on November 26, 2018 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore. Margaret began living her passion as a seamstress making custom draperies and window treatments at Montgomery

Wards. Margaret's gifts are still being admired to this day in some of the prominent homes on East Coast; including her own.

She married the love of her life, Jimmy Harper and out of their incredible love, they craved out an eclectic family. Some members are biological, some not but we could not tell.

She loved us all equally. At any moment someone would be knocking at the door seeking

"rest". Sure enough, she would open both her arms and door for that lost soul.

We had an Angel living among us; what a true Blessing Momma is and will forever be.

Margaret spent many a mornings, afternoons and evenings with her beloved family. She loved her family to no end. She would cook and feed everyone. On one special occasion she designed and created a wedding dress; who can ever forget all that satin material she was set on using. We won't speak on the cornice boards, or how we all had to work on her installation jobs.....Nail after nail, we would all lend a hand. Margaret loved the Lord; her favorite scripture is Psalms 51 and spending time with the Lord. She also enjoyed reading, sewing and grocery shopping. She loved working with her hands outside in her yard. In the summers, she would have all of her beautiful plants lined up on the front porch. On occasion she would yell at us if we came too close to them. And DaDa (Jimmy) or should we say Jim May.....as she so affectionately call him, was gifted with her greatest joy.....her "Honey Do" list. Best to believe it was long and detailed. He better not miss one item on it either. Margaret is loved by us all. She care for each one of us as each needed to be loved. There will be no mountain, no water or time that will ever separate us from her love nor her love from us. We will miss her, honor her and cherish her, yet rejoice for 2nd Corinthians, chapter 5, verse 8 tells us "if we are absent from the body; we are present before the Lord". So let us rejoice as Margaret receives her riches in glory. For her Room has been prepared by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, Amen.

Margaret was preceded in death by her Mother Rosa Lee Parham, Lonnie Proctor and her beloved brother Bernard Proctor (Annette), her sister Joyce Moffitt (Aubrey). She has left the following to continue her legacy of Pure Love: Her beloved Jimmy; her three sons,

Richard M. Huff, Byron A. Huff, Jimmy R. Harper Jr., three daughters, Ethel L. Harper, Jimmie L Mattison and L. Michele Huff (daughter in-law). Along with her babies (Grand and Great Grands); Ciara Huff, Jerrihco Ballinger, Jasmine Love (Roland), Lauren Jackson, Deontai Byers, Maurice Weems Jr., Domenic Mattison and E'Najah D. Davis. Autumn Rose

Love, Lilith A Rix, Lawrence Love, Tai'lynn Bias (Great Grands). She also leaves her beloved sister-in-law Annette Proctor, along with a host of nephews, nieces and other relatives and friends that loves her.

Though Margaret's earthly vessel ceased, we Rejoice in the Lord for we Know Her Spirit rest with God Almighty Forever Amen.
